I Anthony William Jones Have had on display in my store on beach blvd and on my web site the George Freeth Clothing and Surfboards since 09/03/2008, I did not sell any items until 01/01/2010, I request protection to continue selling the George Freeth Clothing and Surfboards, it would create a hardship for my business and my family, I have put alot of money designing art work attending surfing events promoting my George Freeth Clothing and Surfboard line, The Redondo Beach City Council found me on the web looking for George Freeth and found my Tee Shirts of George and came by my store to meet me and look at my George Freeth line, I gave the Lady Kelsey Hudson Cell # 714 403 1206 a couple of shirts for the city, after she brought back the Tees and information to the city of Redondo Beach they called a week later and invited me to attend and help promote the new Greoge Freeth Memorial bust Celebration 11/07/2011 and to bring my George Freeth tee shirts, pictures, and magnets for the unveiling of the New Bust of George Freeth at the Redondo Beach Pier, Where I donated a custom framed large formatted bamboo framed picture of George Freeth and had personally signed by all the Redondo City employees for the Redondo Beach Historical sociaity, it is now on display, I built the entire picture myself from scratch, you can contact Pat Aust City Manager of Redondo Beach 310 372-1171 or email pat.aust@redondo.org you can see the event on my web site www.coralreefwetsuits.com Surf News, and Tee Shirts, And Surfboards.
